Worship

At a fundamental level we are people who love. When we love God rightly we worship. We give our lives wholly to the God who creates and redeems. He is worthy of nothing less. We at Covenant are a community of worshipers. We seek to worship God as he desires and we seek to worship him out of the abundance of love in which He has loved us in Christ. We sing together. We pray together. We partake of the Lord's Table together. And we intently listen and learn from the Word of God together where we find that worship is for God and God alone. We also find that as we worship God we receive a life changing grace that frees us to be people growing in faith, hope, and love.

Disciple

The gospel of Matthew ends with what is known as the Great Commission. In it he records the words of Jesus, "Make disciples of all nations...". This is the great work of the church, to make disciples. A disciple is one who learns from Jesus how to live for God. We strive at Covenant to follow Jesus in all our ways and to trust His Word. Through a life long process we grow in discipleship, by learning the transcendent message of the Scripture, by obeying the Commandments and above all looking to Jesus "the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross" on our behalf. We encourage you to come learn with us as we bring together faith and understanding and as we grow in our love for God and one another.

Serve

Jesus has taught what we do to the least among us is what we do unto him. As we worship Him and learn to be his disciples we discover over and over again that we need grace. We are a people who need to receive the grace God freely offers in the person and work of Jesus. As a result of freely receiving God's favor. God then demands that we extend grace over and over. We love because we were first loved. We serve because Jesus has served us. We are committed to service as the direct result of worshiping a God who has humbled himself to serve us and as we learn at his feet our entire lives are lives committed to serving God, one another, and our community.
